Motorman on Car Says He Saw Victim Slain.

RIVAL RAILWAY IS AFTER TOM JOHNSON

Cleveland's Mayor Accused of Violating Law in Pushing Three-Cent Trolley.

ROOSEVELT HAD TO SAY NO. Could Not Get Away to Lay Corner-Stone in Queens Borough.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—President Roosevelt to-day was invited by a delegation of the West End Theodore Roosevelt Republican Club of the Borough of Queens, New York, to lay the corner-stone of the proposed new building of the club about Oct. 17.

Because of the great amount of work the President has on hand he was up to 25¢; special at each.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 8.—Charging that Mayor Johnson is financially interested in the success of the Forest City Railway Company, otherwise known as the three-cent fare street railway line, and that he procured the organization of the company, Cleveland franchises for it, and has assumed a financial responsibility in behalf of the Forest City Railway Company—all of which is said to be in violation of law—the Cleveland Electric Railway filed to-day in the Common Pleas Court a petition asking that all work upon the Forest City Railway Company's line be enjoined and that interference with the lines of the Municipal Traction Company be prohibited by the court.

The petition also asks that the grants to the Municipal Traction Company, as well as to the Forest City Railway Company, be declared null and void. A number of other city officials are made defendants.

CAPT. W. H. GUY'S DEATH.

Head of Ellis Island Inspection Bureau Victim of Heart Disease.

Capt. William H. Guy, for ten years head of the Inspection Bureau at Ellis Island, died to-day at his home, No. 63 West Ninety-third street, of heart disease.

Capt. Guy was thirty-eight years old. He was the Republican leader in the Fourth Assembly District. He leaves a mother and two sisters. The funeral will be held on Thursday.

In his pockets were found $10, an expensive gold watch, a gold cigarette case and several plain visiting cards with the name "W. W. Power" and no address, and part of a blank check on the Mutual Bank.

To-day in Harlem Court the chauffeur Koeb confessed that he rained down Third avenue with another car. Koeb said he had his employer's car out with his friend Fred Hubert, a barber in the Prince George Hotel, and a woman companion of Hubert as his guests. He denied having run over any man, and said he had not been in Lexington avenue at all. He was held in bonds of $500 for further examination.

TO GET A DIVORCE FROM ACTRESS WIFE.

Lucius J. Henderson Wins an Interlocutory Decree in His Suit Against Gretchen Lyons.

Gretchen Lyons, the English actress, did not appear to oppose her husband, Lucius J. Henderson's suit for an absolute divorce before Justice O'Gorman in the Supreme Court to-day, and Justice O'Gorman granted an interlocutory decree to Henderson from the bench. The principal witness against Miss Lyons was also Emma Mock, now of No. 748 Eighth Avenue, former proprietress of Mock's Hotel. When Perry Street for the winter of 1904 and 1905. She was shocked to discover that a well-known actor, now dead, who had a top-floor hallroom and was let to Miss Lyons at $2 A. M., did not occupy his chamber one bleak February night.

Henry Oster, of No. 24 East Forty-first street, manager of Mock's, corroborated Miss Oster's testimony.

Gretchen Lyons and Lucius J. Henderson were married in San Francisco in 1896, when both were playing in Ben Hur.

"SPEED MERCHANT" HELD FOR TRIAL.

But the Policeman Had to Enlarge the Magistrate's Vocabulary Before He Got Judgment.

"He's a speed merchant," said Eli Dellemane Haggerty to-day, when arraigned James Walsh, of No. 555 Avenue Forty-fourth street, before Magistrate Steinert in West Side Court.

"A what?" gasped the Magistrate. "A shadow murther," said Haggerty, enlightened.

"They're too deep for me. What's the answer?" asked the Magistrate.

"Well, he's one of these automobile drivers who drive so fast that they make the street cars look as if they were going twice as fast." He said that he had been held at arraigned Walsh last night while the autoist was chasing shadows on Central Park West near One Hundred and Sixty-second street.

"He'd in $100 for trial," said His Honor.
